Hit List

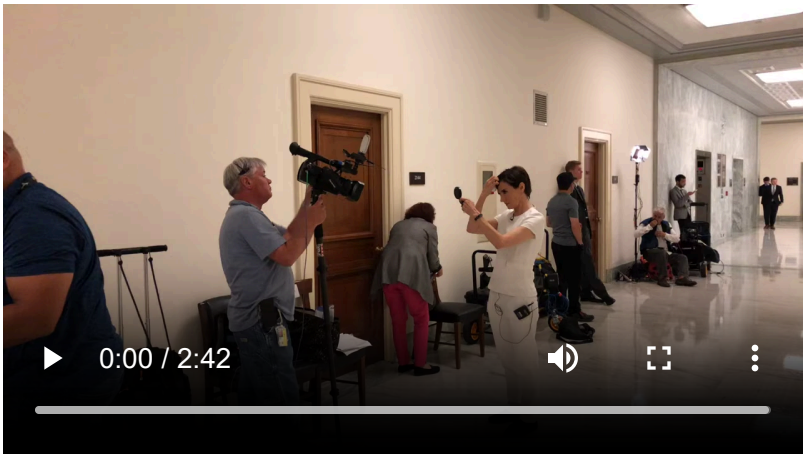
The Racketeering of Rights by the Politically Connecting Racketering Protection Racket Cartel

I have suggessted a Justice Fund to be used to prosecute racketeering particpants. At least 900 to 1,200 times I have been in the presence of a Dopple of me through which all other parts of my life are steereed by. The DOJ FBI DHS is running these programs against me an others, but Jen Moore and I are whistleblowing them. I continue to assert a Justice Fund for other archivers who continue the proof all this is based in fraud, identity thefts, and other cover ups of the frauds.

The Hit List names those in the racketeering ecosystem to be investigated and evidence collected so death penaly cases can be brought agaainst them in court such as OANN reporters and producers. There has never been as toxic a sewer of side-shows, disraction as an art form, and lies as facts as the media companies inside the USA.

Polemics Religious Conspiracy and Racketeering at Fox News

As I asserted I was dying of diabetes passing out medican foundations for spending, etc., and fighting ARC Of NOVA it was Fox News and Megyn Kelly supporting the fraud of ARC of NOVA and refusing contact as I did contact 9even when my mother was alive affiliats in the ARlington and other areas.



Fox News and Fox Business channel obsessions were Marliyn Manson, Satanism, Time Warping, and Civil Liberties concepts that religous groups used by or organized by Fox News coopted into God's Chrisitan Work and the Bible.

> I have a phrase in mind that is similar to "witch hunting" and "witch poking" in which priests often targeted women in ways that represented their prurient interests under the guise that it was their reproductivity that was part of the source of their evil. The phrase I have in mind and wish alternatives for is "Those who are are morally (or intellectually or culturally) distorted starve as result in some areas and thus hunger excuses to overcome their deficits."
>
> Thanks for clarifying—that helps a lot. You're aiming for a condensed, aphoristic formulation that captures this idea:
>
> Moral corruption creates an inner lack, and that lack drives people to invent justifications—often targeting others—to compensate for what they themselves are missing.
>
> Below are refined alternatives, grouped by tone and sharpness, so you can pick the flavor that fits your intent.
>
> Tight, aphoristic (closest to your original)
>
> - →
>
>   "Moral distortion breeds deprivation, and deprivation breeds excuses."
>
> - →
>
>   "Those twisted in conscience experience lack, and turn that lack into justification."
>
> - →
>
>   "Ethical decay creates hunger; excuses are its favored food."
>
> - →
>
>   "Where morality collapses inward, rationalization rushes outward."
>
> Sharper, accusatory (power + indictment)
>
> - →
>
>   "Those warped in conscience manufacture enemies to explain their own emptiness."

- →

  “Moral corruption does not starve quietly—it feeds on accusation.”

- →

  “Inner deficit seeks outward blame.”

- →

  “The corrupt invent sins in others to mask their own lack.”

Historically resonant (echoes witch-hunt logic without naming it)

- →

  “When authority is inwardly barren, it calls others unclean.”

- →

  “Moral famine has always been disguised as purification.”

- →

  “Those empty of virtue declare others impure.”

- →

  “Deprivation dressed itself as righteousness.”

More lyrical / philosophical

- →

  “What is missing within is hunted without.”

- →

  “Conscience in ruin converts hunger into doctrine.”

- →

  “Starvation of virtue breeds excess of judgment.”

- →

  “Where the soul is lacking, accusation multiplies.”

Very close rewrite of your sentence (cleaned, precise)

- →

  “Those morally distorted suffer inner deprivation and hunger for excuses to compensate for it.”

- →

  “Moral distortion creates internal lack, which is then remedied through excuse-making.”

- →

  “The morally distorted experience inner deficits and seek justification to overcome them.”

If you want, I can:

- →

  sharpen this into one devastating single sentence

- →

  tune it toward academic / philosophical prose

  or push it fully into polemic / rhetorical fire

Just tell me the context you’re writing for (essay, manifesto, fiction, caption, etc.).

Any things I was doing was being fraudenelty smears while aslo copied on fOnx News. Megyn Kelly on my Bolshoi like apreciation of Ballet and Opera and Skaing. She sayus losers watch skating hopging to see falls, only pschos, not fans of the sport. Polemic and other words appear in her reporting, etc., The problems I am facing with being defrauded are repeated on fox news including my reporing on Honor FLight DCA that Fox New turned into coverage vans full of biblle carrying Christians supporting the Veterans.
